

A PLAIN GUIDE FOR STUDENTS, PARENTS AND GUARDIANS

Applying to study in Saudi Arabia, step by step

دليل مبسّط للتقديم عبر منصة ادرس في السعودية

Many Saudi universities and colleges take applications from students abroad on one government website. The Saudi Ministry of Education runs it:

Steps 1 to 18 each have their own page. The orange numbers on each picture match the numbered notes under it. Everything typed or uploaded in the pictures (names, numbers, dates, file names and photos) is covered with a plain grey box. Choices picked from the website's own lists, such as Yes or No and the country, are left showing.

Checked against the website on 1 and 2 October 2026. The website can change. If it looks different from this guide, follow the website.

You can apply only on certain dates

The website takes applications for a few weeks at a time. Get your documents ready before the dates open. Some papers take weeks to get, and the dates may close before they arrive.

LATEST DATES SEEN

16 Sep to 6 Oct 2026

The website's "Second Semester Academic Calendar 2026", for international and resident students. Checked on 1 and 2 October 2026. For today's dates, look at the website's home page.

PAST

19 Apr to 21 May 2026

Islamic University of Madinah, all levels.

Likely next dates (a guess based only on the 2025 and 2026 dates, not official)

GUESS

Mid November to early December 2026

Master's and PhD at the Islamic University of Madinah, if it repeats its 2025 dates (see the note below).

GUESS

Mid April to late May 2027

Islamic University of Madinah (in 2026 this window covered all levels).

GUESS

Mid September to early October 2027

Second semester.

No first-semester dates have been published on the website yet. Watch the home page from early 2027.

Master's and PhD at the Islamic University of Madinah

In April and May 2026 the university took bachelor's, master's and PhD applications on Study in Saudi. In 2025 it used its own websites instead (16 November to 6 December; students outside Saudi Arabia used minhatee2.iu.edu.sa). Watch both studyinsaudi.sa and iu.edu.sa for the next dates.

Get your documents months before the dates open

The website asks for a "recent" medical report, and no validity period is published for the police certificate, so a recent one is safest. Get the slow documents first and these two last. This table is for applicants from Nigeria. Elsewhere, ask the offices in your country how long each document takes.

Document	How long it takes	How long it lasts	When to get it
National Identity Number (NIN)	Ask the NIMC office	Not published	First. The passport application checks it.
Birth certificate from the National Population Commission	Ask the office	Not published	First. The passport office and the police ask for it as proof of age. A sworn declaration of age is the alternative.
Passport	Not published; apply early	It must still have 6 months left on the day you enter Saudi Arabia	3 to 6 months before. Renew it if it would run out during your studies.
Certificates and transcript , plus official stamps if your program asks for them	Stamps: not published; allow several weeks	The Islamic University of Madinah wants a school certificate from the last 5 years.	3 or more months before.
Two recommendation letters	Depends on the person writing	Not stated; a recent date is safest	1 to 2 months before.
Hamza Arabic test	Results within 3 working days	Not stated by the test's website	1 to 2 months before.
English test (IELTS or TOEFL), only if you need one	Depends on test dates near you	2 years	2 to 4 months before.
Police certificate (Nigeria: Police Character Certificate, possap.gov.ng)	5 to 7 working days; 2 to 3 working days if you pay more	No official limit is published	2 to 4 weeks before the dates open.
Medical report	Depends on the clinic	The website asks for a "recent" one	2 to 4 weeks before the dates open.

Official stamps on certificates: when?

The website's questions page lists attested (officially stamped) certificates among the requirements to study in Saudi Arabia. How and when depends on the program. Al Yamamah University wants uploaded copies stamped by the education ministry, the foreign ministry and the Saudi Embassy (and the Saudi Cultural Mission where there is one), and asks for the originals when it needs them. For a Nigerian certificate that probably means the Federal Ministry of Education, then the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, then the Saudi Embassy (our guess: we found no official page that gives this order). The Islamic University of Madinah asks only for a copy of your original certificate. Saudi Arabia joined the apostille treaty in 2022, so applicants from member countries may be able to use one apostille stamp from their own government instead; Nigeria is not a member. Read each program's conditions (step 13).

Document checklist

REQUIRED The website will not let you finish without these

- ☐ Passport: its number (a required box), and a clear photo of the page with your picture.
It must have 6 months left on the day you enter Saudi Arabia.
- ☐ Your latest certificate, for example your secondary school certificate, with your grade.
For a master's degree, your bachelor's certificate. For a PhD, your master's.
- ☐ Police certificate showing no criminal record.
The website calls it "Security Clearance Certificate".
- ☐ An email address and a mobile number you use every day.
Universities send news by email. The email cannot be changed later.
- ☐ Your full home address: city, district, street, postal code and P.O. Box.

ALSO REQUIRED Needed to apply, to study or for the visa

- ☐ Medical report: a recent, certified report from a doctor saying you have no disease that spreads to others.
- ☐ Hamza Arabic test certificate.
The website shows it as optional, and on 2 October 2026 only 59 of the 393 programs shown to our test profile listed it as required. But the test's own page calls it "a mandatory prerequisite" for Study in Saudi applicants, so take it.
- ☐ Transcript (your full list of grades).
You may also need your certificates officially stamped (see "Start early" above). Add an official translation if they are not in Arabic or English.
- ☐ Anything the program asks for under "Required Attachments" on its page, for example SAT results or an earlier degree.

ADD IF YOU HAVE THEM Some universities require these

- ☐ Birth certificate and two recommendation letters.
Required by the Islamic University of Madinah (see its section below). The website's full-scholarship page also lists recommendation letters among the necessary documents.
- ☐ Personal photo, passport style (4 x 6).
- ☐ English test results (IELTS, TOEFL or STEP), CV, and any Qur'an memorisation certificate.
- ☐ A reference person: name, email and phone number of someone who knows you.

Other rules: you must be 16 or older. If you are under 18, a parent or guardian must agree in writing. You cannot get two scholarships for the same degree.

The university asks for more than the website does

The university's own guide says it will not look at an application that is missing documents. For a bachelor's scholarship it asks for:

- ☐ Secondary school certificate from the last 5 years (the university can make exceptions) and its transcript. Science subjects need a science certificate.
- ☐ Passport and birth certificate.
- ☐ Police certificate (criminal record clearance).
- ☐ Medical report: good health, no disease that spreads, no disability.
- ☐ Two recommendation letters (تزكية) from recognised scholars, institutions or academic bodies in your country, or people the university approves.
Upload them under "Recommendation Letter" and "Other Attachments".
- ☐ A recent personal photo.
- ☐ English test results for engineering, computing and science, which are taught in English.
Not needed only if you studied in English and you also come from a country where English is an official language, such as Nigeria.
- ☐ The whole Qur'an by heart, tested out loud, for the Faculty of the Holy Qur'an only.

AGE

17 to 25

For bachelor's scholarships.

WHERE YOU LIVE

Outside Saudi Arabia

For the full scholarship.

Also: you may have to pass an entrance test, you cannot change faculty after you are accepted, and you must not have had another Saudi scholarship. Full rules: iu.edu.sa/Students/Guide.

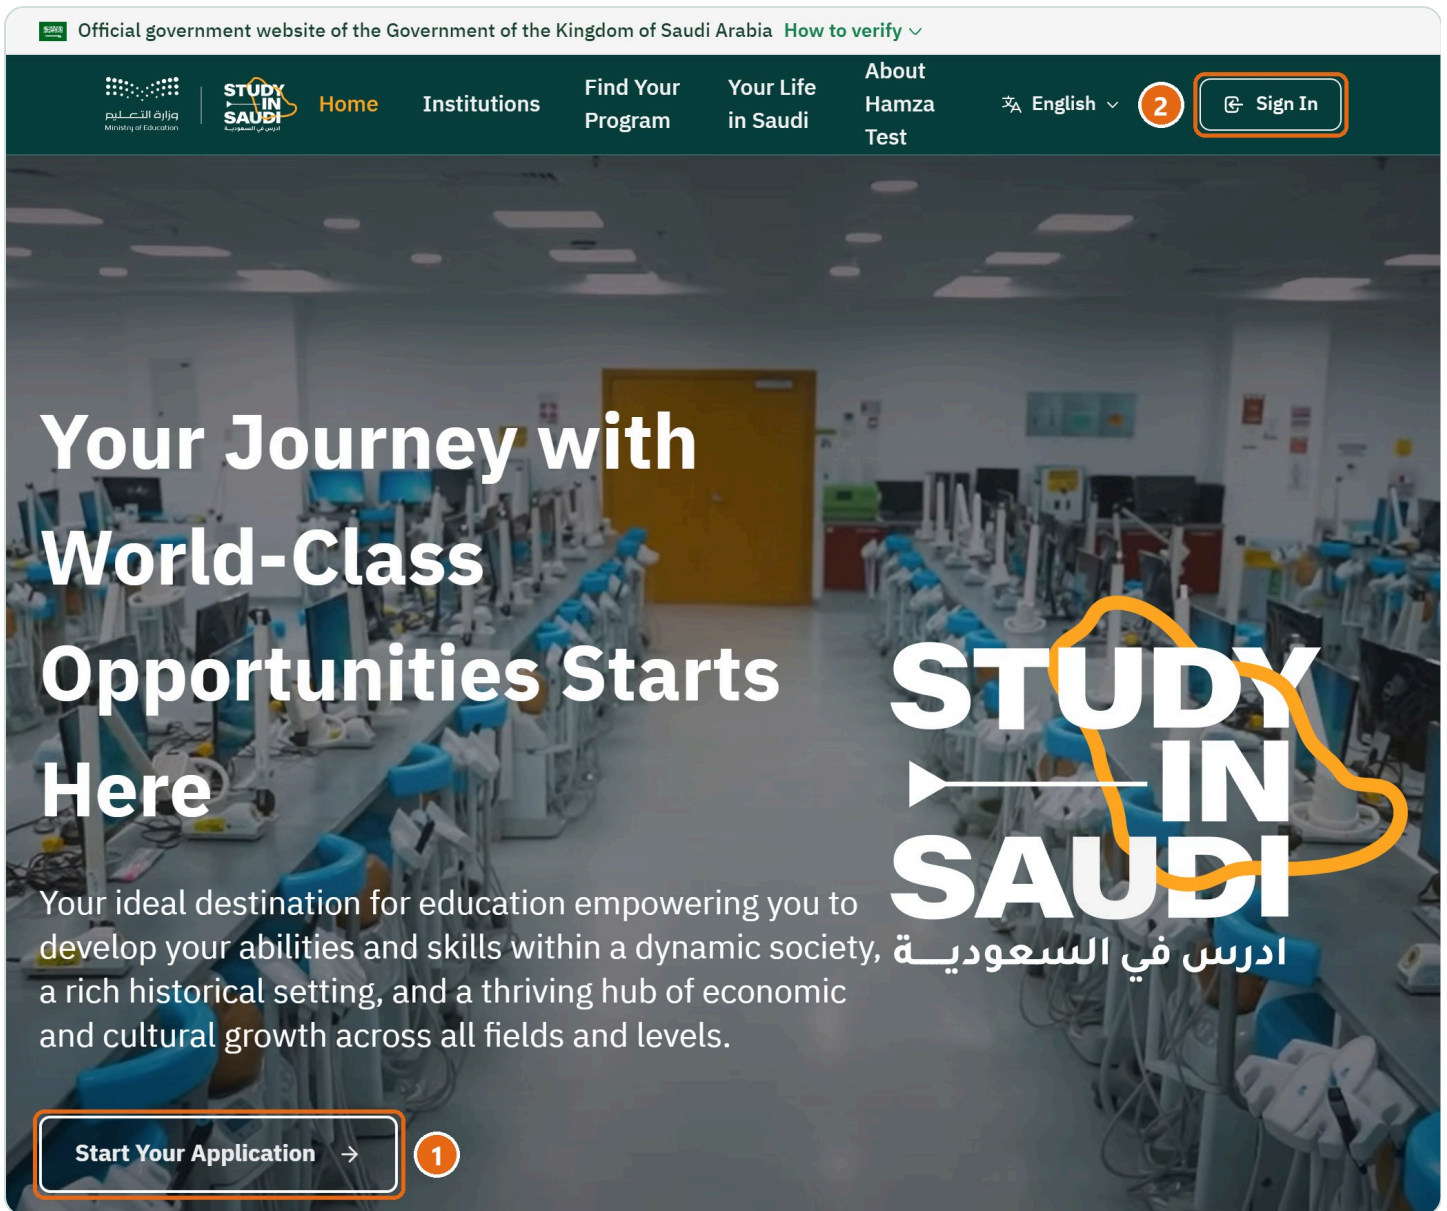

Upload everything you have

Add memorisation certificates, certificates for books you have studied, and Arabic or English results. The university does not say whether these extra papers help. It does say that an application missing a required document will not be considered.

1

Open the website

Type studyinsaudi.sa yourself. The line at the very top says it is an official Saudi government website. You can switch between English and العربية at the top of every page.

- 1 Start Your Application shows the universities. You can look around without an account.
- 2 To apply you need an account. Press Sign In, then Create Your Account.

Stay safe

Do not open links sent by agents or strangers, and never pay anyone to apply for you.

The Hamza Arabic test

Press "About the Test" in the Hamza row to open this window.

اختبار همزة Hamza Test

About the Hamza Test 1

The Hamza test is a strategic and effective tool in the Arabic language learning system for non-native speakers, and is classified according to the European Framework (CEFR). Results are issued within 3 working days.

Target Audience

- The test meets the needs of non-Arabic speaking individuals seeking a reliable tool to measure their Arabic language proficiency.
- The test also meets the needs of institutions, universities, institutes, and centres concerned with teaching Arabic to non-native speakers, providing reliable tools to assess Arabic language proficiency.

Test Structure 2

- The test is computer-based (remote).
- The test consists of (150) multiple-choice questions.
- The total test duration is (100) minutes.

3 Register for the Test

1 Results come within 3 working days.

2 It is taken online on a computer: 150 multiple-choice questions in 100 minutes. The test's registration form adds that your face must stay on camera, your screen is shared, and you must not open other windows.

3 Register for the Test opens the booking page.

Take this test

The test's official page (forms.ksaa.gov.sa/en/hamza) calls it "a mandatory prerequisite" for Study in Saudi applicants. The result is a level, from "Below A1" up to "C1", which you choose when you upload the certificate in the Hamza row.

Press a program to open its page. Every program has its own rules.

Institutions > King Saud University

الكيمياء (Chemistry)

Program Details Bachelor

City : Riyadh Language : Arabic | English Duration : 4 years Student Type : International

Gender : Both

Conditions

- The applicant must hold a high school diploma or its equivalent from their home country, recognized for admission to the intended program.
- The applicant must obtain a valid SAT (Scholastic Assessment Test) score of no less than 1010.
- The applicant must be between 17 and 25 years of age.
- No more than five years must have elapsed since obtaining the high school diploma.
- The applicant's home country government must approve study in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, for countries that impose this requirement on Saudi students.

- 1 City, teaching language, length of study, student type (programs for applicants from abroad say International) and whether it is for men, women or both.
- 2 The conditions. For this King Saud University program they include an SAT score of at least 1010, an age of 17 to 25, a school certificate from the last five years, and, for some countries, your government's approval to study in Saudi Arabia. The small numbers 1 to 5 in the picture are the website's own.

An application can also show Rejected, or Returned to Student, which means it has been sent back to you: check your email. The website's questions page adds that you can cancel an application only before the university has acted on it.

Watch your email, then get the visa

Your email is how they reach you

Universities send requests and news to the email you signed up with. The Islamic University of Madinah says a student who misses its emails may lose the place or the visa. Check your inbox and spam folder every few days.

Who starts the visa

The visa steps start after you are accepted, and you are told about them by email. For the Islamic University of Madinah, the visa appears on Study in Saudi after you pay the visa fee through the link in that email, do the required tests, and give your fingerprints at an embassy, an approved office or the Saudi Foreign Ministry app. Never pay an agent for this.

The student visa for a degree asks for

- ☐ A passport with at least 6 months left on the day you enter Saudi Arabia.
- ☐ The acceptance from the university.
- ☐ Proof you can pay for study and living, or a financial guarantee.
- ☐ A medical report showing no disease that spreads.
- ☐ Medical insurance.
- ☐ Proof you know the language of study (not needed to study Arabic).
- ☐ Under 18: written agreement from a parent or guardian.
